Issuance of Subscription Rights to Shares as Stock Options

Pursuant to "Issuance of Subscription Rights to Shares as Stock Options", approved at the 17th Annual General Shareholders' Meeting held on March 28, 2014, Rakuten Inc. (the "Company") was authorized to issue the following Subscription Rights to Shares as stock options to Employees of the Company's subsidiaries on September 1, 2014 at a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Company held on August 21, 2014.

1. Reason for issuing the Subscription Rights to Shares on especially favorable conditions

Since the value of the Subscription Rights to Shares is linked with the Company's stock price, granting Subscription Rights to Shares will make the Company's medium- to long-term performance be reflected in the compensation of executives and employees, whereby shareholders and the executives and employees of the Group can share equal benefits. Therefore, granting Subscription Rights to Shares makes it possible to further enhance motivation and morale towards higher performance among executives and employees of the Group, and to recruit and retain talented staff. For the purpose of increasing corporate value of the Group, stock option plans are implemented for the executives and employees of the Group. In addition, since the exercise period of Subscription Rights to Shares starts on the day at least three years from the date of issuance of Subscription Rights to Shares, Subscription Rights to Shares function as an incentive for higher performance and higher stock price for the medium-to long-term up to the start of the exercise period.
