Notice of Shareholder Benefit Program for the 19th Fiscal Year

Rakuten, Inc. (the “Company”) announces the structure of a shareholder benefit program for shareholders for the 19th fiscal year (for qualified shareholders as of the end of December 2015). The details are as follows:

1. Purpose of implementation

The Company introduced a benefit program for shareholders from the 17th fiscal year for the purpose of showing its gratitude to all its shareholders for their support, and offering everyone more opportunities to understand the Company’s group services.

As part of our sales and marketing strategy, we expect the program will allow us to expand our customer base and provide more opportunities for shareholders to use our services, and hence lead to an increase in our shareholder value.

* Out of listed companies with a market capitalization of at least one trillion yen in Japan which have established a shareholder benefit plan, 87% use their products and services as a marketing tool. (Source: Daiwa Securities, Market Cap: as of November 20, 2015)

2. Outline of the benefit program for shareholders

1) Qualified shareholders
